

THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1744

Yesterday arriv'd the Mails from France and Flanders.

Naples, January 7.

THE last Letters from Messina assure us, that the Venetians who have been so long expected, arrived there the 11th of last Month; and that they continue to enjoy there perfect Health, as well as throughout the Kingdom of Sicily; excepting one little Village, called Catavuzza, where there are still some Remains of the Contagion. Those from Reggio of the 17th of last Month assure us, that the Disease is in the very same Situation it was when the former Letters came away; and that the Contagion rages at present but in two Places within the Lines, which are guarded with all imaginable Precaution, to prevent its spreading any further.

P. S. We this Moment learn, that the Contagion abates pretty much at Pellara; but that it is not the same Thing at Rosali, where it continues to sweep away Numbers of the Inhabitants, notwithstanding all the Precautions that have been taken, and that are taking daily, in order to put a Stop to it.

Vienna, January 18. Expresses are sent frequently to and from the Troops in Winter Quarters in Bavaria; but we cannot penetrate their Contents. We have certain Information that the Regiments recalled from Transylvania are in full March for Bohemia, as well as those who are destined to join the Army of Prince Lobkowitz in Italy; and that her Majesty's Orders for Recruiting have been so punctually obeyed, that the States of the Lower Hungary are already able to furnish their Contingent. The Baron de Trenck sets out shortly for Sclavonia; and all the Officers at present employed in Recruiting, have strict Orders to join their respective Corps before the Close of the Month of March.

Ratisbon, January 20. The Magistrates of this City have not received, as yet, the favourable Dispatches they expected from the Court of Vienna, upon their remonstrating to her Hungarian Majesty, in relation to the Orders she has given for Recruiting in this City for her Service. It is even reported that this Answer, when ever it comes, will not be so favourable as has been imagined. In the mean time Capt. Beck, of the Regiment of Prince Maximilian of Hesse, is recruiting here with as much Success as he can desire, in spite of all the Remonstrances the Magistrates can make to him. He grounds this Proceeding on the Right that all the Members of the Empire have to recruit in the Imperial Towns; which, he conceives, must extend to her Majesty the Queen of Hungary, as she is a Member; and withal, none of the least Considerable of the Empire. Her Rescript to Capt. Beck is dated on the 30th of November last, and contains in Substance, That, in order to complete the several Regiments of Foot in her Service, he should proceed to raise Recruits in the Imperial Towns following; viz. Ratisbon, Augsburg, Ulm, Dingelspach, Heilbronn, Memingen, Noerdlingen, Kempten, Ebingen, Nuernberg, Rothenbourg, Weissenbourg, Wimpfen, and Schweinfurt; and in the Principalities of Hohenzollern, Oettingen, Durlach, and Eichstade, and the Countries adjacent; to which Letters Requisitional were sent before the End of the Year. It is however true, that in regard to the Application of the Magistrates, this Officer no longer suffers his Drum to beat in the City, but contents himself with enlisting Men at his Quarters, where Numbers resort of their own Accord. We received Information Yesterday, that some Thousands of Pandours and Croats had actually assembled in Hungary, in order to march into Bavaria; and that the People there are so eager, that the Government has been obliged to send some Detachments of Regular Troops to restrain this unreasonable Passion for War. The French Commissary, who arrived not long ago in this City, is set out for Vienna, having received very considerable Sums of Money, and Bills of Exchange for still more considerable Sums, for the Use of the French Prisoners dispersed up and down Austria.

Extract from the Paris Almanac.

Paris, January 31. The King held a grand Council of State on Monday last at Marly.
The Marriage between the Duke de Penthevre with Mademoiselle de Modena is declared; and Messieurs the Prince de Dombes and the Count d'Eu, have given up to them several of their Pretensions.
In order to make this Paragraph a little Intelligible to an English Reader, it may not be amiss to observe, that the Duke de Penthevre is Son to the late Count de Tholouse; as the Prince de Dombes and the Count d'Eu are to the Duke of Maine; both the Count and the Duke being natural Sons of the late Lewis XIV.

The Duke de Chartres, after being twice let Blood, is pretty well recovered of his late Indisposition. We are assured that this Prince, to whom the Duke of Orleans has remitted, as first Prince of the Blood, his Commission of going to espouse the Infanta of Spain, in the Name of the Dauphin, will set out for Madrid, as soon as the Campaign is over.

The late Promotion of the General Officers will be made publick, as soon as the King returns from Marly; and that next Candlemas-day the King will make several new Knights of the Holy Ghost, and will also name the General Officers that are to command in Flanders, on the Rhine, the Meuse, and the Moselle; and who will repair to their respective Posts by the Beginning of the Month of March.

The Marquis de Chatelet, Marshal de Camp, set out lately for the Army that is to serve in Italy; and the other Officers that are to join that Army, have Orders to hold themselves ready to set out on the first Notice.

M. de Chavigny set out some Days ago, with fresh Instructions from the Court, in order to return to Franckfort; from whence he is to make a Tour to several other German Courts.

All the German Regiments in the Service of France, have received Orders to march, to join the Imperial Army in Franconia.

It is confirmed from Brest, that the Squadron of M. du Barail sailed from thence on the 15th, as well to debarb Arms and Ammunition at the Havanna, as to escort Admiral Torres, who is at Vera Cruz, with the Galleons.

We learn from Toulon, that the combined Fleet sailed on the 22d, with 15,000 Grenadiers on board, with Orders to attack whoever shall oppose them in their Passage. The Spanish Squadron has also received a Reinforcement of 2000 Seamen.

They write from Chambery, that the Infant Don Philip has received Orders from Madrid, to march for Provence, with all his Army, by the Close of this Month; and, it is said, that his Troops in Savoy will be relieved by a Body of French Forces.

We are assured, that M. de Marceux, Lieutenant-General of his Majesty's Forces, after conferring with that Prince, is set out for the French Army in Provence.

Actions 2167.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, January 17. We hear, that of the Hon. Col. Lee's Regiment in Cannongate, 15 Men per Company have voluntarily offer'd to go abroad, instead of the Ten proposed to be draughted. On Thursday the whole Regiment marched out of Cannongate till the Election, which came on last Friday in the Parliament House, of a Representative in Parliament for this County, in the room of Sir Charles Gilmour. The Candidates were the Hon. Sir John Baird and Sir Charles Gilmour, Barons; when the latter was chosen by a vast Majority.

The Quota of Men that have been order'd to be draughted out of the Foot Regiments in Scotland, having been accordingly settled, Transports are daily expected in the Firth of Forth, to carry them over to Flanders. And we hear, an Order is coming down for draughting the two Regiments of Dragoons in this Country for the same Purpose.

Yesterday John Livingston, a Convict Felon, who, since he was whipt thro' the Town, and transported to the Plantations, returned, and broke out of the Jails of Glasgow and Hamilton, had the Assurance to come to the Door of the City Jail, and demand Liberty to go up and see his old Companion Brown, who is now in Custody. But the Centinel on Duty knowing Livingston, knock'd him down, and secured him till he was committed to Prison.

HOME PORTS.

Falmouth, January 21. Wind N. E. Arrived the Fly, Rickards, from London. Sailed the Prince Frederick Packet, Williston, for Lisbon; the Anne Galley, Villier, and the Placentia, France, both for the Streights.

Plymouth, January 22. Since my last sailed his Majesty's Ship the Augusta, Capt. Hamilton, for Spithead; and the Tuscany, of Bristol for London.

Cowes, January 23. Wind N. N. E. The 19th came in the Fame, Comyn, and the Lydia, Nichols; which last sailed again the same Day for Oporto. Yesterday came in the Winchelsea, Gerrald, from London.

Southampton, January 24. Wind E. Arrived the Industry, Foster, from Ostend. Sailed the Charming Berry, Legrofe, and the Wyndham, Sinkins, both for Spithead, to wait Convoy for Portugal; and the Mary, Bissau, for Jersey.

Portsmouth, January 24. Yesterday came to Spithead the Winchelsea, Joad, from London for M. Hone; the James, Molden, and the Speedwell, Clark, both for Gibraltar.

Dover, January 24. Wind E. and much Snow. Came in the Victory, Dean, and the Happy Return, Davis, both from London; and the Friends Goodwill, Silver, from Chichester, all for Dunkirk; the Rye, Chambers, for Rotterdam, and the Joseph and Mary, Gorley, for London, both from Rye. Sailed the Endeavour, Swan, and the Duke of Kingston, Merriton, both for Boulogne.

Deal, January 24. Wind E. N. E. and blows hard. Yesterday sailed the Dutch Ship for East-India; and this Morning the Ship from Virginia for the River. Remain his Majesty's Ship the Furnace; and the Bacchus, Cobb, from Oporto.

Gravesend, January 23. Passed by the Virgin Lady, Taynson, and the Anne and Elizabeth, Plank, both from Dantzick; the Elizabeth and Mary, Newman, from Dunkirk; the Francis, Derader, from Ostend; the Diamond, Eldale, and the Rousby, Routh, both from Maryland.

LONDON.

We learn by private Letters from Petersburg, that her Imperial Majesty has absolutely fixed the 4th of February for the Day of her Departure for Moscow, where she intends to reside till towards next Christmas.

The Differences that have so long subsisted between the Courts of Sweden and Denmark, are entirely adjusted, and the Preliminaries of a Definitive Treaty signed by Count Tessin and M. van Schulin.

The French Troops in the Neighbourhood of Hunningue are in Motion; and it is thought, a considerable Body of Forces will shortly pass the Rhine, in order to join the Imperial Army in Franconia.

The States of Juliers and Bergues having had a Proposition made them on the Part of the Elector Palatine, to restrain young Men from marrying till they had served three Years in his Troops; they, upon mature Debate, desired to be excused making any such Regulation.

The last Letters from the Hague say, that there is now no Sort of Expectation there of the Return of the Marquis de Fenelon; and that it was even suspected that the Abbe de la Ville would not remain there long.

Orders are sent to the King's Yard & Deptford for expediting the three Men of War of 70 Guns each, and the two Sloops building there; as also to the several private Yards between Greenwich and the Tower, where 12 Men of War are building for his Majesty's Service.

The Tito, Troth, from London to Leghorn, and the William, Reynolds, from Newfoundland to Leghorn, are both taken, and carried into Cadiz, the 14th of January.

This Day the Judges will meet in the King's Bench Chamber, in order to chuse their respective Circuits for the Lent-Assizes.

By Letters from Brussels, dated the 15th Instant, there is Advice of the Death of Charles Garnier, Esq. Brother to ——— Garnier, Esq. Apothecary to his Majesty, Director-General of all the British Hospitals at Ghent, Brussels, and elsewhere.

The Lady Elizabeth Powis, Relict of Richard Powis, Esq. Member in the last Parliament, lies dangerously ill, at her House in Park-street, near Grosvenor Square.
